

Social Worker- Amy Adair

Amy has a master of social work and is our new generalist Social Worker. Amy's hours are 8.30-5.00 every Monday. Amy lives on the Surfcoast and works at Lorne Community Hospital and Otway Health. She also works at Gateways Support Services in Geelong in the child protection field. Amy has experience working in family violence, disability, housing and homelessness, family and individual support, drug and alcohol and mental health.

Amy has experience working with children, youth and adults and has worked as a social worker in schools.

Amy is happy to speak with staff and clients who may be having issues with mental health, drug and alcohol, family violence, legal, financial, housing and/or relationship difficulties. Amy can provide generalist counselling, practical support, advocacy, referrals and home visits.

Amy can also assist parents who require support for children with behavioural issues, social skills training and general trauma counselling.

Appointments with Amy can be booked by ringing the Community Care team at Lorne Community Hospital on 5289 4316.
